

I am writing in support of RM-10781. Giving what were formerly known as Novice privileges to current Technician licensees in the Amateur Radio Service gives them a chance to practice the use of HF techniques in a limited fashion before proceeding to use all the allotted bands. It also eliminates any confusion regarding the lack of a "Tech Plus" license class.